Data protection principles

a) We fairly and lawfully process personal data in a transparent way

Walsall Symphony Orchestra will only collect data where lawful and where it is necessary for the legitimate purposes of the group.

- A member's name and contact details will be collected when they first join the group, and will be used to contact the member regarding group membership administration and activities. Other data may also subsequently be collected in relation to their membership, including their payment history for 'subs'. Where possible Walsall Symphony Orchestra will anonymise this data,
  - Lawful basis for processing this data: Contract (the collection and use of data is fair and reasonable in relation to Walsall Symphony Orchestra completing tasks expected as part of the individual's membership).

- The name and contact details of deputies, volunteers, and contractors will be collected when they take up a position, and will be used to contact them regarding group administration related to their role. Their consent is given to the Walsall Symphony Orchestra to contact them as required until the individual confirms they no longer wish to be contacted.

Further information, including personal financial information and criminal records information may also be collected in specific circumstances where lawful and necessary (in order to process payment to the person).

- Lawful basis for processing this data: Contract (the collection and use of data is fair and reasonable in relation to Walsall Symphony Orchestra completing tasks expected as part of working with the individuals),
- An individual's name, contact details and other details may be collected at any time, with their consent, in order for Walsall Symphony Orchestra to communicate with them about and promote group activities. See 'How we get consent' below.
  - Lawful basis for processing this data: Consent (see 'How we get consent')
- Pseudonymous or anonymous data (including behavioural, technological and geographical/regional) on an individual may be collected via tracking 'cookies' when they access our website or interact with our emails, in order for us to monitor and improve our effectiveness on these channels. See 'Cookies' on the Walsall Symphony Orchestra website (below).
  - Lawful basis for processing this data: Consent (see 'How we get consent')

b) We only collect and use personal data for specific, explicit and legitimate purposes and will only use the data for those specified purposes.

When requesting consent to collect data, Walsall Symphony Orchestra will always provide a clear and specific privacy statement explaining to the subject why the data is required and what it will be used for.

c) We ensure any data collected is relevant and not excessive

Walsall Symphony Orchestra will not collect or store more data than the minimum information required for its intended purpose.

Eg. we need to collect telephone numbers from members in order to be able to contact them about group administration, but data on their marital status or sexuality will not be collected, since it is unnecessary and excessive for the purposes of group administration.

d) We ensure data is accurate and up-to-date

Walsall Symphony Orchestra will ask members, volunteers and staff to check and advise the committee of any changes in their contact information.

We ensure data is not kept longer than necessary

Walsall Symphony Orchestra will keep records for no longer than is necessary in order to meet the intended use for which it was gathered (unless there is a legal requirement to keep records).

The storage and intended use of data will be reviewed in line with Walsall Symphony Orchestra data retention policy. When the intended use is no longer applicable (e.g. contact details for a member who has left the group), the data will be deleted within a reasonable period.

e) We keep personal data secure

Walsall Symphony Orchestra will ensure that data held by us is kept secure.

- Electronically-held data will be held within a password-protected and secure environment
- Passwords for electronic data files will be re-set each time an individual with data access leaves their role/position
- Apart from the members' contact list (containing name, email and phone number) which is available to all members, any other personal information e.g. relating to payment of fees or Gift Aid administration, is exclusively retained by the Treasurer and is never provided to anyone else.
- Any physically-held members' contact information will be stored securely at the domestic addresses of Walsall Symphony Orchestra members. The only centrally stored material (in our practise room) is sheet music and refreshment items.

Member-to-member contact

We only share members' data with other members with the subject's prior consent.

As a membership organisation Walsall Symphony Orchestra encourages communication between members.

To facilitate this:

- Members can request the personal contact data of other members in writing via the Data Protection Officer or the membership secretary/treasurer. These details will be given, as long as they are for the purposes of contacting the subject (e.g. an email address, not financial or health data) and the subject has consented to their data being shared with other members in this way.

How we get consent

Walsall Symphony Orchestra will regularly collect data from consenting supporters for marketing purposes. This includes contacting them to promote performances, updating them about group news, fundraising and other group activities.

Any time data is collected for this purpose, we will provide:

- A method for users to show their positive and active consent to receive these communications (e.g. a 'tick box')
- A clear and specific explanation of what the data will be used for (e.g. 'Tick this box if you would like Walsall Symphony Orchestra to send you email updates with details about our forthcoming events, fundraising activities and opportunities to get involved')

Data collected will only ever be used in the way described and consented to (e.g. we will not use email data in order to market 3rd-party products unless this has been explicitly consented to).

Every marketing communication will contain a method through which a recipient can withdraw their consent (e.g. an 'unsubscribe' link in an email). Opt-out requests such as this will be processed within 14 days.

A cookie is a small text file that is downloaded onto 'terminal equipment' (e.g. a computer or smartphone) when the user accesses a website. It allows the website to recognise that user's device and store some information about the user's preferences or past actions.

We will implement a pop-up box on www.walsallsymphony.uk that will activate each new time a user visits the website. This will allow them to click to consent (or not) to continuing with cookies enabled, or to ignore the message and continue browsing (i.e. give their implied consent).

It will also include a link to our Privacy Policy which outlines which specific cookies are used and how cookies can be disabled in the most common browsers.

  - Where deleting the data would mean deleting other data that we have a valid lawful reason to keep (e.g. on old emails) then the data may be retained safely and securely but not used.

Criteria

The following criteria will be used to make a decision about what data to keep and what to delete.

Is there a statutory requirement to keep the data?	Keep the data at least until the statutory minimum no longer applies. ie for 2 years after members leave the orchestra.	Delete or remove the data unless we have reason to keep the data under other criteria.
Is the data accurate?	Continue to use	Ask the subject to confirm/update details
Where appropriate do we have consent to use the data. This consent could be implied by previous use and engagement by the individual	Continue to use	Get consent
